- Article 1 The following guidelines are promulgated by the University for the purpose of letting the students understand the details and procedures regarding the payment of miscellaneous fees, credit fees, and other expenses.
- Article 2 All students in NCHU must complete the payment for all kinds of fees in each semester according to the procedures specified in the guidelines.
- Article 3 Miscellaneous fees, credit fees, internship fees, and expenses for the regular registered students in each semester shall be paid according to fee scale announced annually by the University; credit fees will be determined by standards set forth by the college (major, department, or degree program) offering the course (not the student's college of study). Extension Program students shall pay the fees each term according to the fee scale stipulated for each program. All students with the exception of those who are eligible for tuition reduction shall pay the full amount of fees.
- Article 4 Payment items for each different classes in each semester are as followed:
1. Undergraduate Programs:
 - (1) Students within the prescribed study period: shall pay the full tuition and miscellaneous fees according to their college.
 - (2) Students in the extended study period (hereinafter referred to as "extended study students"): Before the 2025 academic year (inclusive), extended study students taking more than 9 credits per semester shall pay the full tuition and miscellaneous fees according to their college. Those taking fewer than 9 credits shall pay credit fees, calculated per credit in accordance with the fee standards of the Undergraduate Extension Program.

Starting from the 2025 academic year, the payment scheme is as follows:

I. Extended study students taking 10 credits or more shall pay the full tuition and miscellaneous fees according to their college.

II. Extended study students taking fewer than 10 credits shall pay both miscellaneous fees and credit fees. Credit fees are calculated according to the standards of the Undergraduate Extension Program and the actual number of credits enrolled in that semester. The miscellaneous fees are calculated as follows:

(I) For 3 credits or more but fewer than 10 credits: miscellaneous fees are paid in proportion to the percentage of credits taken divided by 10.

(II) For 0 to fewer than 3 credits: 30% of the miscellaneous fees of the respective college shall be paid.

III. Credit fees for physical education courses and teacher education programs shall follow Article 5 and are not included in the calculation of the above credit total.

(3) Extended study students participating in exchange programs abroad must first pay the student insurance fee. Upon returning, they must pay credit fees according to the number of transferred credits. If the number of transferred credits is 10 or more, the student shall pay the full tuition and miscellaneous fees according to their college.

2. Master's and Doctoral Programs:

(1) Students enrolled before the 2011 academic year shall pay both the basic miscellaneous fees and credit fees.

(2) Students enrolled in or after the 2011 academic year shall pay the basic miscellaneous fees and the basic credit fees during the first four semesters of study (excluding semesters of leave). Starting from the fifth semester, only the basic miscellaneous fees shall be charged.

3. Undergraduate Extension Programs:

(1) All students shall pay credit fees but are exempt from miscellaneous fees.

(2) Students within the prescribed study period:

– First- to third-year students shall pay the “basic credit fee”

equivalent to 12 credits in advance.

– Fourth- to fifth-year students shall pay the “basic credit fee”

equivalent to 9 credits in advance.

After course selection is finalized, the actual credit fees shall be adjusted accordingly (refunds or additional payments made).

(3) Extended study students: shall pay the credit fees according to the number of credits taken in that semester after course selection is finalized.

4. Master's programs for Working Professionals and Industry Professionals: All students shall pay both the basic miscellaneous fees and the credit fees.
5. Educational programs and other promotional programs: All students shall pay as specified.
6. Students who audit classes shall pay the "registration fees" and the credit fees, laboratory fees, and material fees as required.
7. Students from other universities audit internship courses shall pay the additional “Experiment and Internship Material Fee” required by the relevant offices

In addition to the above fees, students are required to pay “Language Lab Fees” and “Computer and Internet Usage Fees” pursuant to relevant regulations.

Article 5 Special fees for different classes in NCHU are as follows:

1. Fees for summer courses are the same as the credit fees for extension education programs for undergraduates regardless of which college the course falls under. Fees for zero-credit, internship, or physical education courses are in accordance to the instructor's hourly pay. Defense education programs and sports programs are calculated and paid based on Line 7.
2. Master's and PhD students who enrolled before academic year 2011 and students enrolled in the Graduate Programs for Working Professionals and Industry R&D Professionals who take undergraduate courses shall pay the same credit fees as undergraduate students (regardless of which college the students belong to). The said students shall pay credit fees according to the fee scale for extension programs undergraduates.

Undergraduate students who enrolled before academic year 2011 and take master's /PhD courses shall pay the same credit fees as graduate students for those courses (regardless of the college which the students belong to).

3. Students in the Master's Program for Working Professionals or Program for Industry R&D Professionals who take courses in other programs (e.g. PhD program, master's program, undergraduate, or undergraduate extension programs) and do not intend to have the said course credits counted toward graduation may follow the same credit fee scale as regular graduate students or extension program undergraduates.
4. Students in the Master's Program for Working Professionals who have already completed the required credits for graduation but still take additional courses in the department (graduate institute or class) shall follow the same credit fee scale as regular graduate students.
5. Undergraduate extended study students, undergraduate extension program students, or graduate students who take the following courses shall pay additional credit fees:
 - (1) General Education Courses: Credit fees shall follow the undergraduate extension program fee scale of the College of Arts.
 - (2) Physical Education Courses: Fees shall follow the undergraduate extension program fee scale of the College of Arts and shall be calculated according to the number of weekly teaching hours.
6. Students of all programs who elect courses under the Teacher Education Program shall pay additional credit fees according to the undergraduate extension program fee scale of the College of Arts.
7. Graduate students or extension program undergraduates who take physical education or national defense education shall pay the credit fees according to the number of hours taught weekly in accordance with the credit fee scale of the College of Arts.
8. Students who spend the entire semester in off-campus internships will be charged total tuition and four-fifths of miscellaneous fees.

Article 6 Deadlines for all payments to NCHU:

1. Miscellaneous fees and internship fees shall be paid prior to courses selection in the beginning of the semester.
2. The "basic credit fee" for extension program undergraduates shall be paid prior to course selection in the beginning of the semester.
3. The rest of the credit fees shall be paid a month after the course addition/dropping deadlines.

Article 7 Students on student loans shall submit relevant documents to the Division of Student Life within prescribed period as certification of completed payment.

Article 8 For students who fail to make payments on time, NCHU may order the said students to withdraw from school or face other disciplinary actions.

Article 9

The rules for fees and refund are as follows:

1. Newly admitted graduate students and transferred undergraduate students who apply for withdrawal from school before the recruitment deadline shall be refunded the full payment after the processing fees are subtracted. The tuition refund policy for students applying for suspension or withdrawal after the recruitment deadline are specified in the following paragraphs. The tuition refund policy for students in specially contracted classes (such as industrial development master's program for working professionals) applying for suspension or withdrawal are specified in the following paragraphs; however, relevant rights and obligations (e.g. violation of the contract, and compensation) shall be governed by the contract.
2. New students who are on the waiting list for withdrawal shall pay the administration fees following the rules stated in the above paragraph. Other students applying for suspension of study or withdrawal from school before the beginning of the class do not need to pay the fees. Those who have paid the fees will be refunded the full amount except the safety insurance fee. Safety insurance fee shall be fully refunded to those applying for withdrawal but not those applying for suspension of study.
3. Student applying for suspension or withdrawal before classes lapse for less than $\frac{1}{3}$ of the semester (according to NCHU calendar), shall be refunded $\frac{2}{3}$ of the fees (basic miscellaneous fees and basic credit fees). $\frac{2}{3}$ of the safety insurance fee shall be refunded to the aforementioned students applying for withdrawal from school, but non-refundable to those applying for suspension of study.
4. Students applying for suspension or withdrawal after classes lapse for less than $\frac{2}{3}$ of the semester (according to NCHU calendar) shall be refunded $\frac{1}{3}$ of the fees (basic miscellaneous fees and basic credit fees). $\frac{1}{3}$ of the safety insurance fee shall be refunded to the aforementioned students applying for withdrawal from school, but non-refundable to those applying for suspension of study.
5. Payments by student applying for suspension or withdrawal after classes lapse for more than $\frac{2}{3}$ of the semester (according to NCHU calendar) will not be refunded.
6. Administration fees stated in sub-paragraph one is set at 5% of the total sum of the minimum fees in each program:
Undergraduate: tuition and miscellaneous fees.
Extension Program: fees for 14 credits
Graduate Institute: basic miscellaneous fees and 6 credit fees.
7. Students who are permitted to withdraw from a course after the course adding/dropping deadline but before 1/3 of the semester has lapsed (according to NCHU calendar) will not be refunded the credit fees. However, students in Extension Programs can apply for refund within nine weeks after the registration date of the semester with credits shown on the deadline of online course selection. Applications submitted after this date will not be processed.

8. Refund of fees other than miscellaneous fees (basic miscellaneous fees, basic credit fees), credit fees, and safety insurance fee are governed by the regulations and guidelines of the relevant offices.

Article 10 Other relevant laws and regulations shall apply to areas which the guidelines herein do not address.

Article 11 These guidelines are effective and enforced as of the date of promulgation approved by the University President with the pre-approval from Executive Meeting. Amendments of the said guidelines shall undergo the same process.
