※Notes:

- 1. According to [National Chung Hsing University Directions of Subsidy for All-English Courses and Degree Programs] III.(5), Teachers may receive a subsidy of NT$5,000 for each of their new courses and credits in the current semester when they fulfill basic teaching hours and teach courses with different course titles. If the course will continue to be delivered, teachers may receive a teaching material subsidy of NT$5,000 for each course and credit. Each teacher shall apply for the subsidy for no more than 2 courses. (Applicants can choose to apply for either this subsidy or the subsidy specified in Article (5)-1.)
- 2. All-English Courses: 100% of the delivery of content, teaching materials, and the demonstration and assessment of learning outcomes should be in English.
- 3. Applicant(s) must submit (an) EMI training program certificate(s) of completion issued by reputable training organization (including, but not limited to, Certificate in EMI Skill Online Course by the University of Cambridge or other equivalent training courses) within two years from the current semester of the subsidy. Office of Academic Affairs may evaluate the effectiveness of all-English courses funded by this subsidy every semester. Subsidy allocated to courses that are found not taught in English or the instructor hasn't obtained an EMI skills certificate will be cut or canceled according to the situation. Moreover, these courses shall be reevaluated in the future.
