

Notification for GE Course TA application Fall 2024 (113-1) semester

General Education Course TA Applications and Regulations

The application period for Teaching Assistants (TAs) for university-level General Education courses for the 113-1 semester is now open until June 28th, 2024.

We kindly ask the course instructors to carefully consider your actual needs and read through the application instructions before submitting the application form. Please ensure timely submission within the specified deadline.

For courses requiring TAs, please submit your application in advance. After the add-drop period, the quota and monthly stipend will be determined based on the budget and enrollment numbers. We remind course instructors to clearly explain the relevant benefits to TA applicants. Please refrain from committing to assistance before confirmation of funding for the course.

For documents related to university-level General Education courses (including College Chinese), please visit the General Education Center website of the Office of Academic Affairs.
