General Education Course

「Information Literacy: Computer Programming and AI Applications」

Spring 2025

Night school students and foreign students can be exempted from taking the course – 「Information Literacy: Computer Programming and AI Applications」.

1.Exemption Departments List：

College	Department/ Degree Program
Agriculture and Natural Resources	*Bio-industrial Mechatronics Engineering *International Bachelor Program of Agribusiness
Science	*Applied Mathematics
Engineering	*Civil Engineering *Mechanical Engineering *Chemical Engineering *Intellectual Creativity Engineering
Management	*Finance *Marketing *Management Information Systems
Electrical Engineering and Computer Science	*Electrical Engineering Computer *Science and Engineering *Bachelor Program of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science
※Night school students and foreign students can be exempted from taking the course.

2. General Education Center will automatically add the course for freshmen students. Other students that need to take the course (returning students or transfer students) but do not have a pre-selected "Information Literacy: Computer Programming and AI Applications" course, please add a course that you wish to enroll in during the preliminary selection period for general education courses or the online add/remove course period.

3. Please note that the Information Literacy: Computer Programming and AI Applications course only lasts for 9 weeks. You can enter the course code into the Course Information System to check if you are taking the course during the 1st to 9th Weeks or the 10th to 18th Weeks.

4. Please refer to the "Course Information System" on the department offering the course and the class schedule.

"Course Information System"(please click here)：https://onepiece.nchu.edu.tw/cofsys/plsql/crsegry_gene_e